

THE PLANNEROur critics' guide

SPECTRUMPLANNER@FAIRFAXMEDIA.COM.AU

visual art30 YEARS/30 ARTISTS/
30 WORKS

Brenda May Gallery is celebrating 30 years in the art business with a carefully curated exhibition from the archives. There are 30 works from 30 artists - one for each year the gallery has been operating. Pictured is Haydn Wilson's He Watches a Nature Program over Breakfast. Until December 10, 2 Danks Street, Waterloo, brendamaygallery.com.au.

NATIONAL ART SCHOOL GRADUATE EXHIBITION
2015

This is a much anticipated annual opportunity for art lovers and collectors to buy paintings, drawings, ceramics, sculptures and photography from the artists of the future. Saturday (last day), National Art School, corner Forbes and Burton streets, Darlinghurst, nas.edu.au.

CONTINENTAL DRIFT

An installation by Lesley Giovanelli assembles colourful woven and patchwork bags and sacks from makers in Yunnan, Laos and India and contrasts them with modern designs from Japan and Australia. Until December 13, 497 Parramatta Road, Leichhardt, articulateupstairs.blogspot.com.au.