

MAY 16-17, 2015

spectrum

21

visual art

MEMENTO 2015

Janet Tavener's coloured and glistening ice sculptures of fruit and vegetables are arranged and photographed as they melt. They offer a remarkable twist to the tradition of still life while reminding the viewer of the transient nature of living things. Until June 6, Brenda May Gallery, 2 Danks Street, Waterloo, brendamaygallery.com.au.